

BROOKE-ALVINSTON

Municipal elections in Ontario are held every four years on the 4th Monday of October. The upcoming Municipal Election will be held Monday, October 26, 2026.

Notice of Election, Municipal Elections Act, 1996 (s.40)

Notice is hereby given to the Municipal Electors of the Municipality of Brooke-Alvinston that the next regular Municipal and School Board Election to elect a Mayor and four(4) at large Councillors and School Board Trustees is on October 26, 2026. The new term of Council begins November 15, 2026 and ends November 14, 2030.

Council passed By-law 43 of 2025 to authorize the use of internet voting for the 2026 Municipal and School Board Election. The electronic election method ensures that eligible electors can participate in an accessible, convenient, safe and environmentally friendly method of voting.

If you are a resident, owner, or tenant of property in Brooke-Alvinston, a Canadian citizen and at least 18 years of age, you can vote in the 2026 Brooke-Alvinston Municipal and School Board Election. Check, update or add your information to the Municipal Voters' List through Elections Ontario at www.registertovoteon.ca

Eligible electors should expect to receive a Voter Information Letter (VIL) at the beginning of October and will be able to begin electronically casting their ballots when the voting period begins on October 16, 2026 at 9:00 am until the voting period ends on October 26, 2026 at 8:00 pm. Ballots can only be cast electronically using a computer, tablet or smartphone.

To provide eligible electors with electronic voting assistance during the voting period, a Voter Help Centre will be located in the Brooke-Alvinston municipal office. If you have any questions, please contact the Clerk directly at 519-898-2173.
